My dear Balasubramanyam

I invite a reference to my letter No B 1/51-52 dated the 13th October 1951 making certain proposals relating to the appointment of the Market Superintendent, etc , and request that orders may kindly be passed immediately in the matter

In this connection, I enclose an extract of the Joint Report dated the 4th February 1952 of the Health Officer and the Personal Assistant, regarding certain irregularities and malpractices that happened in the market and write to say that unless a permanent and full-time Market Superintendent is posted immediately there cannot be proper control of the staff and such scandalous leakages will not stop

I request therefore that the matter be treated as extremely urgent and orders of posting issued immediately,
